The Association

The Kansas Association of REALTORS® (KAR) is a non-profit trade association serving real estate professionals in the Midwest since 1921.

With a growing membership, experienced staff and strong volunteer base, the Association is a leader in the real estate industry.

Over 350 members volunteer for a committee or task force at the State Association. A recent study found that volunteers spent an average of eight hours per year serving the Association. This represents more than 1,600 total volunteer hours!

The same study found that the majority of staff time (65+ percent) at the Association is spent on key member benefits -- Communications, Governmental Affairs and Programs, Products and Services.

With these two important components in place, the Kansas Association of REALTORS® is moving forward into new areas including economic forecasting, public policy and technology applications. An experienced, diverse staff keeps its finger on the pulse of the ever-changing real estate industry for its 9,000+ members.

The Association's Board of Directors, Executive Committee, volunteers and staff invite you to get to know the Kansas Association of REALTORS®.
